7. Copy of current First Aid card
8. Copy of current CPR card
9. Letter of Recommendation from your Sensei or the Regional Manager
10. AJJF Activity Sheet (signed by Director of each Activity.) or copy of applicable Budo Pass pages. Include score sheets from at least one AJJF sanctioned contest (Contest requirements are for Shodan and Nidan applicants only.)
11. Applicant's notebook to be verified by the Exam Coordinator, or her/his representative, on exam day.
12. Refer to the school handbook for requirements specific to Sandan/Yodan exams.

NOTE TO ALL APPLICANTS:

You are personally responsible for obtaining the important information necessary for fulfilling the requirements of your rank.

Ask your Sensei to assist you by referring to the AJJF School Handbook.

1. Look in the EXAMINATION section for rank requirements:
 - a. Lists of physical techniques required for each rank
 - b. Additional documentation required for certain ranks
2. Look in the FORMS section for any forms you may need.

About AJJF Examinations

The AJJF examines candidates for promotion on the basis of their technical proficiency in executing and teaching the arts of Jujitsu. It also attempts to ascertain through Sensei certification and Letters of Recommendation from those who know them, whether they possess the habits and traits of character desirable in one to be elevated to a position of authority over other students. Beyond doing what is reasonable and prudent to ensure the safety and well being of students working under a certified instructor, the Board of will review all completed examinations prior to advancement being awarded.
