

Kappo for Sandan and Yodan Exams

Where: One hour class via zoom

Date: Sunday November 19

Time: 8 pm Eastern / 5 pm Pacific

Who: Brown belt and above

*AJJF registration is required to participate. Membership cards of ATJA organization also accepted.

The Professors are pleased to announce the first of 4 one hour Zoom sessions covering the Sandan and Yodan Kappo for exams. These Kappo will be required for exams starting in 2025. Professors Hudson and Ryan are the primary sponsors of these session, however other Professors will be participating in the instruction.

About the sessions:

- First session will be November 19, 2023, 8 pm Eastern/ 5 pm Pacific via Zoom.
- Zoom link to be provided on Saturday, November 18, 2023.
- A handful of Kappo will be covered during a session. The intention of these sessions are to spend sufficient time to teach and practice Kappo. This means that material covered in one session will not necessarily be covered in subsequent sessions.
- Cameras can be turned off during the lecture portions.
- Cameras should be turned on during practice portions.
- It is best if participants have a partner available.
- At this time, these sessions will not be recorded.
- Brown belts and above are welcome to attend.
- These sessions are intended to supplement in-person sessions and help disseminate the information to the members in order to help meet upcoming changes in rank requirements.
- These sessions will be sanctioned.

Hope to see you there!